Welcome from the APHON President and Conference Chair

Step into the rhythm of Waves of Hope as you begin your journey of inspiration, connection, and discovery. This year's conference invites you to navigate new currents in pediatric hematology and oncology nursing, chart new meaningful relationships, and tread with leaders shaping the future of care. We're glad you are here!

Please note the conference program only includes presenting speakers. A complete list of authors and contributors can be found in the mobile app.
