

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Hallie Schoemaker
Association of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Nurses (APHON)
info@aphon.org | www.aphon.org

APHON Announces Amy Newman as President for 2025–2027

McLean, Virginia, September 27, 2025 — The Association of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Nurses (APHON) is pleased to announce Amy Newman, PhD, RN, CPNP-PC, as President of the Board of Directors for the 2025–2027 term. Dr. Newman officially assumed the role at the conclusion of APHON’s 49th Annual Conference and Exhibit in Providence, Rhode Island.

Dr. Newman currently serves as an Associate Professor at Marquette University, Nurse Scientist at Children’s Wisconsin, and Nurse Practitioner at the Medical College of Wisconsin. A longtime APHON member since 1998, she has contributed to the organization in numerous capacities, including serving as Director-at-Large (2018–2024), participating on multiple committees, and contributing to APHON’s publications, including the Journal of Pediatric Oncology/Hematology Nursing (JOPHON).

Her professional experience spans pediatric hematology/oncology practice, research, advocacy, and education, with numerous presentations at APHON conferences and national webinars. She has also authored and edited multiple APHON resources, including the Ewing Sarcoma and Radiation Therapy Patient and Family Handbooks and the Foundations of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Nursing Orientation Review Course.

Outgoing APHON President Dyane Bunnell, DNP APRN AOCNS® CPON® NPDBC, shared:

“It has been an honor to serve alongside Amy in her role as President-Elect. She is a visionary leader, deeply committed to our mission, and I have no doubt she will guide APHON to even greater achievements over the next two years.”

As President, Dr. Newman will lead the Board of Directors in advancing APHON’s mission and strategic initiatives, while ensuring that the needs of members remain at the center of the organization’s work.

Dr. Newman expressed her excitement about beginning her presidency, stating:

“It is a professional honor and privilege to serve beside such talented and passionate APHON leaders. Together we will advance our strategic plan, strengthen our community, and continue to elevate the impact of pediatric hematology/oncology nursing. I am deeply grateful to our members for entrusting us with this responsibility”

APHON congratulates Dr. Newman on this significant achievement and looks forward to the leadership and vision she will bring to the organization.

For more information about APHON, its mission, and upcoming initiatives, please visit www.aphon.org or contact APHON at info@aphon.org.

About the Association of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Nurses (APHON):

The Association of Pediatric Hematology/Oncology Nurses (APHON) is a 501(c)(3) public charity (EIN 23-7446224) committed to developing educational content, delivering informative programs, promoting evidence-based practice guidelines, and providing resources to pediatric, adolescent, and young adult communities and their families. APHON is the professional organization for pediatric hematology/oncology nurses and other pediatric hematology/oncology healthcare professionals. Its members are dedicated to promoting optimal nursing care for children, adolescents, and young adults with cancer and blood disorders, and their families.